

Tablesapes

[THE 2017 STYLE GUIDE]

THE FINGERBOWL CHRONICLES

Mary Catherine Folmar hand draws the images in her graphic patterns. The inspiration comes from past travel and a rich imagination of places she wants to visit.

Travel and architecture influence
her designs.

WITH Mary
Catherine
Folmar

"I have always had a trip to Morocco on my bucket list. My collection embodies what I imagine the sights, sounds and colors I would experience during a trip to the city of Marrakesh."
—Mary Catherine Folmar

Pineapple is a fantastic shape for interest, and fruit can be painted in bright, unusual colors to engage the eye, says Stylist Joel Sarvis.

Palms are native to temperate regions of the southeast as well as tropical regions of the world. They work great for centerpieces on round tables.
westonfarms.com

Runners on a basic tablecloth, are a fun and practical way to easily and quickly change a theme. The camels shown are from the Cotton & Quill Marrakesh collection. cottonquill.com

Tropical touches in Mary Catherine's home in Birmingham include a lantern-inspired lamp shade and bromeliads. Colorful foliage plants look great for an event and with little care last for many years of perennial beauty. Bromeliads, Costa Farms. costafarms.com