

[THE 2017 STYLE GUIDE]

Tablescapes

DINING BY PERSONALITY

Interior designer Steve McKenzie founded his namesake store in Atlanta's Westside design district with his wife Jill. In addition to offering exclusive collections of home furnishings, accessories, and textiles the store also serves as an incubator for creative living while housing both a design library and Steve's art studio. Steve lends his award-winning style to the Dining by Personality dinner.

WITH Steve
McKenzie

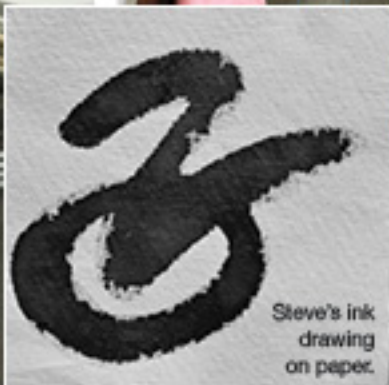

"Sea Holly Thistle brings interesting texture to my arrangements. Mayesh is my source for flowers."
Mayesh.com

Interior designed by Steve McKenzie including his abstract painting pictured on right.

Steve McKenzie fabric makes stunning runners, napkins or tablecloths—loose brush strokes bring a new twist to classics like gingham and scallops.
stevemckenzie.com

Steve's ink drawing on paper.

Classic Parris bouquets look great with any fresh blooms from the garden added in the center. Floral arrangement by Matt Butler and Erin Weston.
12" Classic Parris bouquets, westonfarms.com

When I cross the threshold of my studio, I never know what will happen. Creating art is a journey: each piece reveals itself to me moment by moment. It is a process of layers, media and marks until it declares itself done.
—Steve McKenzie

Award-winning Dutch floral arrangement by Steve McKenzie using a decorative container by Accent Decor, accentdecor.com